sistant District-Attorney Fitzgerald said: Col. Fellows was the picture of ill-health yesday. He has a fearful cold and is really not ble to carry on the work of the trial of Thomas Kerr. I believe he will be in condition, ough, when the evidence is finished, and that he will deliver the final address to the jury. I re that that is his honest intention and desire. But he is ill now."

The trial of Kerr went on at its normal pace to-day, with Dr. Samuel Hall giving his moral rt to Mr. Kerr, and Col. Ingersoll, exupport to Mr. Kerr, and Col. Ingersoll, expander Davis and Yachtman Bird acting as legal roops, while Messra. Semple and Fitzgerald conducted the prosecution.

Osborn E. Bright, of Bebinson, Scribner and right, was the first witness called by Assistant Histrict-Attorney Semple. Mr. Bright said hat the promoters of the Broadway urface road frequently met at its office in 1884. That Jacob Sharp, James F. Forshay, James M. Richmond, Thomas B. terr and others were there on the 19th of 18gust, 1884, and William H. Moloney, the sessenger of the Board of Aldermen, was there to.

Francis J. Twomey, Clerk of the Board for thirty-two years.

Clerk Twomey also testified that never before nor since was there a meeting of the Board so early as 9 in the morning. He identified the minutes of the Board for several meetings as prapared by him, and Mr. Semple read them. They indicated the various stages of progress in the Board of Aldermen of the scheme of Sharp & Co. for grabbing Broadway.

John J. Bradley, a Broadway and Seventh avenue director, was called to the stand to bring out further details of the action of his Company in 1884. He did not hear of the July 22 issue of $5500,000 worth of bonds till September. Then he asked President Forshay the object of that issue of second mortgage bonds and was told—city, his brother being a reputable attorney in the office of Lawyer John T. Shaw.

The young man's relatives are at a loss to account for his conduct, and say that he must be mentally affected in some way.

I Inspector Ryan, of the Post-Office Department, arrested Myers yesterday in the act of extracting money from a registered letter and five foreign letters were found in his pockets, the contents of which had been removed and the envelopes rescaled.

Thirty-seven dollars in money was also found on him, and he admitted that he had taken $35 of it from registered letters.

A bottle of mucilage used for rescaling letters was found in the prisoner's possession.

Myers had been employed in the Begistered Letter Department seventeen months, and handled both foreign and domestic letters. Suspicion was directed against him some time ago, complaints having been made of the loss of money in January last.

The prisoner is a pale young man, with jet black hair and eyes, and has a peculiar expression about his face. He is at liberty on ball of $2,500.

bears have long waited for an opportunity to break the market, and they went at it this morning lammer and tongs.

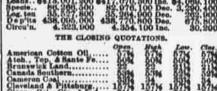

Large amounts of stocks were thrown overboard and everything suffered to a greater or less extent.

Prices declined 1/2 to 2 per cent, from yesterday's closing figures and the sales up to noon—when the Stock Exchange was closed, as usual on Saturday—reached the large total of 210,000 shares.

The flercest enslaught of the day was made upon the stocks in which Boston is heavily interested. Capitalists in that city are so heavily interested in the copper speculation that the bears here believe the collapse of the latter will enable them to shake the Eastern people out of their Union Pacific and other railroad shares.

The banks lose $3.558.300 in cash and $3.722,250 in surplus reserve this week. They now hold $8,548,500 in excess of the amount of reserve required by law. The following are the comparative figures:

LITTER.—Suddenly, on Friday, March 8, LTDIA RITTER, sister of the late Joseph Ritter.
Funeral from her late residence, 144 East 38th st., on Monday, at 10 s'clock A. M.

A pathetic story is told by these two death no-tices which appear side by side in a morning paper. Mr. Joseph Ritter, a retired merchant, left his home at 144 East Thirty-eighth street on Thursday morning, apparently in the best of

He boarded an uptown Broadway car, and, taking a seat in a corner, apparently went to sleep. At Fifty-third street an acquaintance got on the car. He took a seat alongside the apparent sleeper and slapped him on the knee. There was no movement on the part of the sleeper. His friend shook him and then noticed the deathly color of his face.

He was herror stricken to find that Mr. Ritter was dead. The body was removed to the West Forty-seventh street police station. Mr. Ritter's friend then sadly went to the former's house to tell of his death. His wife and nisce were informed, but his sis-ter, who had hear's trouble, was not told until ter, who had heart trouble, was not told until yesterday.

Then she was led down to the parlor, where the body of Mr. Ritter was resting in its casket. As soon as she learned that her brother was dead she uttered a plercing, soul-stirring cry, and fell back into the arms of her nicce dead.

The sudden death of the sister following right after the taking away of the brother was an awful shock to the surviving members of the family. Wife and nicce consoled each other and near friends attended to the funeral arrangements.

Two caskets, sombrely draped in black crape, rested side by side in the parlor this morning, telling with silent sadness the pathetic story of

of each.

The funeral services will be held on Monday morning at 10 o'clock. The Bev. Dr. Robert V. MacArthur will officiate and the Rev. Drs. Elder and Cottrell will assist at the services.
Then both bodies will be taken to Greenwood Cemetery and be laid side by side in one grave.
Mr. Ritter was seventy-three years old. He was widely known and respected in business circles, from which be retired fifteen years ago, having acquired a competency in the provision trade.

having acquired a competition of the shock trade.

His wife is four years his junior and the shock has proved a terrible one for her. He had been alling with heart disease for some time past and from all appearances his end was painless. The news of his death, followed by that of his mister, shocked his wide circle of acquaintances. They speak of him in the highest terms, and the funeral will no doubt be largely attended.

It is understand that the above advertisement was printed in an effort to secure ball for the accused woman, but Mr. Bright would say nothing regarding the case.

GOTHAM DIDN'T SHAKE.

The Earthquake Got No Further North Than Reading, Says Sergt. Dunn. Sergt. Dunn, of the Signal Service, was en gaged in drawing his daily weather map when an Evening World reporter called at his sky-parlor this morning to interview him in regard to resterday's earthquake.

"There was no shock in this part of the country. The earthquake extended east and west between Harrisburg and Philadelphis, and as far north as Reading and south as Baltimore."

According to our reports the earthquake occurred about 6. $5 o'clock in the evening and lasted about ten seconds, rattling the windows and in some places shaking the buildings in a very threatening manner. No serious damage is reported.

Two Men Killed by an Explosion. WEST CHESTER, March 9. - At Hickory Hill, or Big Elk Creamery, in this county, the Danish Western Separator burst and the only occupants of the room, George S. Smith, the manager, and Owen Springer, his assistant, were killed. The machine was running faster than its ordinary speed, which led to the fatality. Both of the men, were highly respected citizens. Mr. Springer was married and leaves a wife and two children.

Bob Veal Stopped from Coming In Seventy-two carcasses and sixteen quarters of bob veal were seized by the Health Department officers at Cortlandt street ferry to-day.
